Active
Active members are physicians who devote a significant portion of their medical endeavors to Emergency medicine. They are licensed in the state, province, territory or foreign country in which they practice, or are serving in a governmental medical assignment. They must also fulfill a postgraduate education requirement every three years. The vast majority of the members are in the United States.

Inactive
Inactive members who are unable to engage in active practice may, upon application, be elected to this classification by the Board of Directors.

Honorary
Persons of distinction who have rendered outstanding service to the College or to the medical profession, or distinguished members of the College who have retired from practice, may be elected to honorary membership.

Life
Members who have had continuous active, inactive or international membership in the College for a minimum of 15 years and who have reached the age of 60 or members who have had 10 years of continuous membership and have reached the age of 70 may be elected to this classification by the Board of Directors.

Candidate
Any medical or osteopathic student, intern or physician participating in an emergency medicine residency or fellowship program.

International
Physicians interested in emergency medicine who are not a resident of the United States or a possession thereof, and who are licensed to practice medicine by the government within whose jurisdiction such physician resides and practices.

Fellow
Members of the College who are either active, life, honorary or international members for three continuous years prior to election and are currently certified in emergency medicine by the American Board of Emergency Medicine or in pediatric emergency medicine by the American Board of Pediatrics. They must have three years of active involvement in emergency medicine as their chief professional activity, exclusive of training. Additionally they must meet three of ten additional criteria demonstrating their involvement in activities such as hospital affairs, teaching, research, administration, etc.

7 RENTAL AGREEMENT (Signature Required)

The names and addresses provided by the American College of Emergency Physicians (ACEP) are the property of ACEP and are supplied for the specific mailing ordered and for no other purpose. Additional usage will require submission of an additional request to ACEP. This list may not be reproduced or stored in any manner, either in part or whole. This statement prohibits the user from producing individualized repetitious letters. Failure to adhere to the conditions established by ACEP for use of the list may result in legal action. Such misuse will render the user liable for all damages to the College which may arise from litigation, attorney fees, court costs and expenses incurred because of misuse. Each list rental is a separate contract between ACEP and the user and shall imply no obligation of ACEP to enter into future contracts for the use of the list. I have read and agree to follow the ACEP Guidelines for Rental of the Membership List.

AMERICAN COLLEGE OF EMERGENCY PHYSICIANS
GUIDELINES FOR RENTAL OF THE MEMBERSHIP LIST

The ACEP membership list, for the purpose of mailing labels only, may be rented for one-time use upon ACEP’s review and approval of the request and the proposed mailing piece using the criteria outlined in these guidelines.

1. The proposed use of the list will be for mailing an item that promotes a program, product, or service which reasonably can be expected to be of interest to ACEP members.

2. The list will be made available for research purposes provided the requestor submits a sample of the mailing piece, etc.

3. All copy to be mailed to ACEP members must be submitted to ACEP prior to release of the list. ACEP’s requests for changes in copy (e.g. to correct an inappropriate use of ACEP’s name) must be made by the customer and submitted, in writing, prior to release of the list.

4. ACEP reserves the right to reject any membership mailing label list requests. The following are examples of uses of the list which may be denied:
   a. Use by political candidates.
   b. Publicity or advertising which might imply to ACEP members that the College has endorsed an organization, its purpose, products, or services, particularly if the College has not taken an official position on the issue advocated by the organization.
   c. Use by organizations for any fund raising purposes or membership solicitation.
   d. Any communication which would tend to mislead, misinform, or be considered distasteful.
   e. Concern about the reliability or integrity of the customer requesting the labels, particularly if the customer has an account which is 90 days or more past-due.

5. The Board of Directors will establish prices for the rental of the list during the budget approval process. Prices will vary according to the purpose of the mailing.
For example, lists for an educational program with ACEP Category I credit are less expensive than labels for physician recruitment.

6. ACEP will neither release members’ telephone numbers of any kind (home, work, fax, pager, etc.) nor members email addresses of any kind. ACEP will not authorize the list to be stored or duplicated in any manner, including the personalization of letters by electronic storage of the list.
