

2021-22 Section Manual

The information in this file is provided for quick reference by section chairs, staff liaisons, and anyone interested in sections. If you do not find the information you need or if you would like additional information about any of this material, please contact Kelly Peasley, sections manager.

The function of sections is to:

1. Provide a forum for the exchange of information between members and the College.
2. Provide a means for the College to utilize the expertise of an identifiable group of members on specific issues.
3. Provide a forum for members with a special interest to speak as a unified group to the leadership of the College.
4. Provide a route to policy development.
5. Coordinate activities with other organizations involved in emergency medicine at the invitation of the President and/or Board of Directors.
6. Advance and publicize legislative issues related to emergency medicine.
7. Provide a pathway for professional leadership development within the organization.

There are 40 sections and over 22,000 unique section members.

Section Membership Dues

Section dues are $40 for regular members.

Emergency medicine resident members, medical students, and individuals in fellowship training programs receive a free section membership in the Young Physicians Section, may join another section of their choice for free and join additional sections for only $20 each.

Candidate members and members in their first year of regular membership following residency graduation receive complimentary membership in the Young Physicians Section.

Section Subscriptions for Non-Members

In October 2011, the ACEP Board of Directors agreed to offer Section Subscriptions to non-ACEP members. Each section determined whether or not to open its section to a non-member subscription.

The Board voted to permit non-members to participate in sections in response to inquiries over the years from members and leaders of several sections about allowing non-ACEP members to participate in sections as non-voting members. Members of these sections interact and work closely with respected partners, such as nurses, PAs and EMTs, etc., who cannot join ACEP, but provide value to section discussions and work products. These non-ACEP members often hold key roles and positions that can be influential in developing policies, guidelines and other clinical and practice resources.

The Section Subscription package includes the e-newsletter and access to the section's engagED community for a $50 annual fee.

For more information on section subscriptions, visit www.acep.org/sections.

Section Operational Guidelines & *ACEP Policy on Sections of Membership

Each section has Operational Guidelines which are detailed outlines of the section's objectives and processes. The operational guidelines are on posted on each section's web page.

Section officers and staff liaisons are encouraged to become familiar with their section's operational guidelines and the ACEP Policy on Sections of Membership. To view the policy, click on the bookmark in this manual.

The sample operational guidelines in this manual are used by sections as a guide when developing or revising guidelines.

Section Officers

Typically, the officers of the section include the chair, the chair-elect, the immediate past-chair, and the secretary. The responsibilities and duties of each section's officers are defined in the section's operational guidelines.

Review your section's guidelines by clicking on the section name listed here. On the section site, click the About Us tab at the top right, and then the Operational Guidelines box in the intro paragraph.

Each section has a separate budget within the College's overall budget. Each section is budgeted for:

- 1 Expenses for section annual meetings during ACEP's Scientific Assembly. Meeting expenses include: rooms, standard audio visual equipment, ribbons for section members, and signs.
- 2 Discretionary funds, 15% of dues collected during the previous year.

Additional Funding for Section Activities

There are three mechanisms for increasing section funds:

1. Sections may apply for: an allocation of 15% of its total dues collected during the previous year; or a one-time per project voluntary special assessment.
2. Sections may raise funds from outside entities such as corporations. All such fundraising must be approved in advance by the College and meet the criteria established by the College.
3. Sections may apply for a Section Grant (if grant funding has been approved by the Board for the current fiscal year.)

The three funding mechanisms are summarized below. For more information, contact your section staff liaison or sections manager.

- Allocation of 15% of total dues collected per section during previous year

An amount equal to 15% of total dues from the previous year can be budgeted to support special section projects or activities. Section members can work with their section staff liaison to: 1) secure approval of the section chair; 2) ensure the request meets the criteria for how the funds can be spent; and 3) submit a special project budget request to the sections manager.

- One-time per project voluntary special assessment

A one-time voluntary special assessment can be requested for a specific project and would be in effect for a period not to exceed 12 months. There are no restrictions on the activities this mechanism can fund, but the request for funding must include: 1) approval of the section chair; 2) a detailed description of the project; 3) a time line and proposed budget for the requested funds; and 4) the project must have approval of a majority of the section membership.

- Section Grant Program

The Section Grant page will have the most up to date information on the availability of section grants. Additional information can be found on the Section Grant tab of this document.

• Fund-raising from Outside Sources

All efforts on the part of a section to raise funds from outside entities such as corporations must be approved in advance by the College and meet the criteria established by the College. Contact your section liaison or the sections manager for more information.

Outside funding can be used for:

- Travel for a speaker
- Reception during annual meeting
- Lunch for meeting attendees
- Honorarium for a speaker

Section Meetings

- Section meeting information is announced on the ACEP Scientific Assembly web site and on-site program.
- Meeting space will be provided during ACEP's Scientific Assembly at the request of the section chair.
- Ribbons for section members with the name of the appropriate section will be provided.
- The section chair is responsible for establishing the section meeting agenda. See the sample meeting agenda.
- If the section meets or has a conference call, minutes must be taken and submitted to the sections manager. Sample section meeting minutes are provided for your reference.
- The staff liaison or section secretary is responsible for drafting minutes within 21 working days of the meeting or conference call and routing them to the section chair for approval. The section chair should approve the minutes (with or without revisions) within 5 working days. The approved minutes should be posted to the section web site 30 days after the meeting or conference call.

Conference/Zoom/Teams Calls

- Well-planned conference calls can be as productive as meetings and usually cost less.
- The staff liaison will set up the call to include those members designated by the section chair and the Board liaison.
- The staff liaison should e-mail an agenda and background material to conference call participants two weeks prior to the call, if possible.
- After the conference call, the chair and staff liaison should confer to review action to be taken and appropriate assignments to be made.
- The staff liaison prepares minutes for approval by the chair and posts them to the section micro site.

Section Newsletters

Members have identified section newsletters as one of the most valuable benefits of membership in a section. Every section is required to produce at least two and no more than four newsletters per section year which starts with the section's annual meeting during ACEP's Scientific Assembly.

Guidelines for Newsletter Editors

- Each section newsletter editor is responsible for timely development and submission of newsletter content to the staff liaison.
- Review and edit the articles submitted by the members of your section. Write any other articles you wish to include. Check the consistency of style and grammar among the articles so that the newsletter is a cohesive document.
- Submit articles to your staff liaison in Microsoft Word format via e-mail.
- The copy you submit should be final with any approvals needed from authors and the section chair. Written permission from the author and/or publisher must be obtained prior to reprinting any text or image previously published in whole or in part.
- Provide a title for your newsletter. One easy way to engage more members and get them to open the e-Newsletter and read its great content is to have a subject line worthy of reaction. A short phrase summarizing the theme of your newsletter or something thought-provoking that one of the articles addresses are good starting points.

Procedures for Staff Liaisons

1. Obtain approved, final copy from the newsletter editor by the established deadline. While you may certainly offer assistance with content, it is not the section liaison's responsibility to write the newsletter.
2. Newsletter editors should submit edited copy to you. However, if you feel changes are necessary, make them and review them with the editor. The staff liaison should also edit the copy for College standards.
3. Submit copy to the Board liaison for approval. If you feel that there are some sensitive issues included in some articles, point this out to the Board liaison.
4. Submit the text in electronic format along with a Newsletter Production Request to the sections manager. The sections manager will post the final copy to the section micro site and send the e-newsletter to the active section members.

Practical Tips for Newsletter Editors

Copyright Release Agreement

- Each author of a section newsletter article must submit a copyright assignment agreement before the article is published.

- A link to the online Copyright Assignment Agreement form is located on the first page of each section's web site, or under the Newsletters menu.
- Section officers can fill out one form to cover all the articles they submit in one year. Under Title of Article, indicate: "All newsletter articles I submit in the 2018-19 section year".

Setting a Production Schedule

- Each section is required to produce two newsletters per section year. Many sections produce three to four newsletters each year.
- Without firm deadlines, section leaders can easily find themselves more than halfway through the section year (typically October to October- the start of the section year coincides with the section's annual meeting during ACEP's Scientific Assembly) without having produced a single newsletter.

The following points should guide the production schedule:

- The first newsletter should come fairly soon after ACEP's Scientific Assembly and can serve to announce new officers and plans for the year.
- The holiday season will make article submission difficult, and the second newsletter should come just after the winter holidays.
- For many sections, the third newsletter comes at about the right time for the call for nominations for the next year's section officer candidates.
- For many sections, the fourth newsletter includes section officer candidate biographies/personal statements in anticipation of elections for the next year's section officers. The fourth newsletter must come out early enough to permit proper voting procedures.
- Authors need time to write their articles. Pleasant reminder e-mails should be sent to authors 1 month, 2 weeks, 1 week, and 2 days before their deadlines or until the author has made their submission.
- Editors should leave themselves sufficient time to edit submissions from authors (or write a replacement article if an author is unable to keep their commitment) prior to the deadline for submission of the newsletter to the staff liaison.
- Newsletters always take longer than expected to produce.

Newsletter Content

The content of a section newsletter is the responsibility of the section leadership. There are several tips for encouraging busy physicians to write for the section newsletter:

- Have an established expert in a field write an article on their topic.
- Compliment a lecturer by asking them to write an article that summarizes their lecture.
- Note to potential authors that writing for the newsletter is often a path to eventual section leadership.
- Have someone write an article about an important national meeting or event that they attended.

Instead of being a blank slate each time, several types of articles can serve as core features that occur in every newsletter. Examples of these include:

- From the Chair – a report written by the chair of the section giving updates on section activities, commentary on current events that are of interest to section members, or other information that the chair wishes to share with the section membership.
- From the Chair-elect – a report written by the chair-elect of the section. Similar to the “From the Chair” report.
- Clinical Update – a review of a clinical topic with a discussion of the supporting literature that is of particular interest to the section membership.
- Committee Update – a report from the appropriate ACEP committee associated with the section on current activities of the committee.
- Journal Club – a critical discussion of current literature that is of particular interest to the section membership.
- FDA Warnings – an update on governmental actions that would be of particular interest to the section membership.
- Tricks of the Trade – brief descriptions of clinical “pearls” that would be of special interest to the section membership.
- Grant Update – an update on the progress that has been made on a section grant.
- Trending Web Sites – a listing and description of Web sites that may be of significant interest to section members.
- Book Review – a critical review of a textbook that may be of particular interest to the section members.
- Member Profile – an article about a section member who has made great achievements, has had significant life events (eg, a well-known member of the section dies), or has had experiences that would be of interest to section members.
- Reprints – an exact duplication of an article that has been published previously (requires permission of the owner of the article – usually an organization or publishing company and not the author). One of the most convenient sources of reprints is another ACEP section newsletter.

Improper Newsletter Content

The following content is inappropriate for ACEP section newsletters:

- Advertisements for meetings and publications that compete with ACEP
- Product endorsements
- Job listings

Writing for the Newsletter

Many times, sections have difficulty establishing a stable of authors who reliably produce multiple articles for the newsletter. The responsibility for producing the newsletter belongs to the section leadership who often write the bulk of the newsletter content. The following are tips for producing multiple articles throughout the year:

- Keep the newsletter in mind throughout the year and look for topics that may be of interest to the section members.
- Keep a folder where ideas, papers, news articles, etc. can be kept and sorted later to facilitate production of the newsletter articles.
- Write articles when time permits and ideas arise. Unless the article is very time-sensitive, having a small number of articles in reserve can help when there is a shortage of articles for one of the newsletters.
- Make reprint requests several weeks before they are needed. This always takes longer than initially expected.
- Search Web sites including the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, the World Health Organization, other emergency medicine organizations, PubMed, and the ACEP Web site (www.acep.org) for ideas and articles that could be reprinted.
- Coordinate your activities with your ACEP staff liaison.

engagED FAQs

A few FAQs are highlighted here. For the full list please visit <https://engaged.acep.org/participate/faq>.

Q: *What is my username/password?

A: Your login credentials are the same username and password that you use to log in to ACEP.org. If you have forgotten your login credentials or need assistance with your login information, please click here, where you can change your password. Should you need assistance remembering your login email, please contact our Member Care Department at 800-798-1822, ext. 5 or membership@acep.org.

For each discussion, you have the following delivery options:

- Real time: sends an email every time a new message is posted.
- Daily digest: sends one email to you each day, consolidating all of the posts from the previous day.

We recommend replying to the sender for simple comments like “me, too” that add little value to the overall discussion; and replying to the entire community when you are sharing knowledge, experience or resources that others could benefit from.

Q: *How do I start a new discussion thread?

A: Go to “Participate” > “Post a message.” From an email (HTML version) for a particular discussion forum, you can use the “Post Message” link located at the top of the discussion email.

Libraries | Top

Q: *How do I find resources that may have been uploaded by other members?

A: If you know which library the resource might be located in, find the affiliated community via the All Communities page. Click through the community's landing page, then click on the “Library” tab . If you do not know where the resource might be, enter search terms in the main search box the same way you might enter search terms into Google or another search engine.

Q: *How do the libraries get populated?

A: The libraries are populated in two ways:

1. When you include an attachment in a discussion post, the system automatically places it in the affiliated library.
2. You can also upload documents directly to a library by using the “Share a File” link found under “Participate” in the main navigation or "Create New Library Entry" button on any community's library page. Library resources are not required to be associated with a discussion thread.

Q: *How do I upload a file?

A: Select the “Share a File” link found under “Participate” in the main navigation or "Create New Library Entry" on any community landing page. Please note that uploading a document is accomplished by completing a few steps, and each step must be completed before you can move on to the next:

Section Awards Program

Sections of membership play an important role within the American College of Emergency Physicians. To recognize those sections and their leaders that make exceptional efforts to meet the needs of their members and the College, five awards have been created.

- The Service to Section and Service to College awards are based on section activities held from August 1, 2021 to July 31, 2022.

AMERICAN COLLEGE OF EMERGENCY PHYSICIANS
Policy Development by Sections of Membership

Approved by the ACEP Board of Directors September 11, 2001

Sections may be assigned the task of developing a policy and/or participating in the sunset review process.

Sections may develop policy statements or information papers that address issues of concern to the section. To facilitate that process, the Board of Directors adopted the procedures listed below for sections to follow. If you have questions, you are encouraged to contact your staff liaison.

I. Section Developed College Policy Statement

- A. Section member or Board of Directors initiates policy idea for consideration by the section in an area of interest.
  1. Section or Section Steering Committee votes to explore development of College policy.
  2. Receive direction or seek Board of Directors input and approval for policy development.
    - a. Submit key issues to the Board of Directors as a discussion item.
    - b. The Board liaison and/or section chair will discuss key issues with the Board.
    - c. The key issues may be revised following Board input and approval.
  3. All related College policy statements, Policy Resource, and Education Papers (PREPs) and information papers will be provided to the Board liaison and section chair to avoid redundancy and to avoid potential conflict.
  4. Section officers and/or section steering committee creates preliminary policy draft.
  5. Preliminary draft is reviewed by the Board liaison.
  6. Section members should be informed that the policy statement is being drafted and their input solicited.
  7. Preliminary draft is taken to the Board as a discussion item.
  8. Preliminary draft revisions are made and the revised draft is taken to the Board either as a discussion or action item, per the discretion of the Board liaison or the section chair.
  9. Existing policy statement/draft conflict
    - a. If there is a contradiction or conflict between current College policy statement/statements and the draft statement, one of the following will occur:
      - i. The Board will review the draft and current policy statement and may elect to adopt the draft as the new policy statement, with or without revisions, removing the current policy statement.
      - ii. The Board will review the draft and current policy statement and may elect to maintain the current policy statement, with or without revisions, rejecting the draft.
      - iii. The Board will review the draft and the current policy statement and may elect to substitute portions of the current statement for portions of the drafts, or the Board may refer the draft and current policy statement to a related committee or section for further input. This may be particularly helpful with policy statements regarding clinical issues, which may require particular expertise in the area being discussed.

II. Section Information Paper

- A. Section information papers reflect information of particular interest to the section and may not reflect a policy emphasis of the College.
- B. College information papers are based on factual information only and avoid all personal opinion. Section information papers will follow this same process and format.
  - 1. A draft should be submitted to the Board liaison and the section chair for review and input. The section's Board liaison will edit opinions from the information paper prior to circulation. Full section input should be solicited prior to Board review of the draft paper.
  - 2. The draft is submitted as a discussion item to the Board.
  - 3. After review and approval by the Board, the section information paper will be distributed to section members only unless the Board authorizes a request for a wider circulation and larger target audience.

ACEP Liaison Process

- The College currently maintains active liaison relationships with approximately 40 other organizations.
- When a liaison relationship relates specifically to section activities, section members may be recommended for that appointed position by the appropriate section chair.
- The liaison representative should be invited by the section chair to attend the organizational section meeting during ACEP's Scientific Assembly and should be copied on appropriate section correspondence throughout the year.
- Copies of activity reports submitted by the liaison representative will be automatically distributed to the section chair and staff liaison. Recommendations based on these reports should be forwarded to the executive offices manager within 10 days.

Forming a New Section

1. Members who want to form a new section should notify Kelly Peasley (kpeasley@acep.org), ACEP's Sections Manager.
2. Information about forming a section will be e-mailed to the section originator.
3. The originator will e-mail Kelly Peasley: 1) prospective section objectives; 2) description of the subject area that will be addressed by the section; 3) description of how the establishment of a section will further the College's ability to meet its objectives; and 4) proposed first-year activities.
4. The originator will ask members interested in joining the proposed section to indicate their support for the section by either filling out an online petition: <http://www.acep.org/Membership-top-banner/Petitions-for-New-ACEP-Sections/> or by e-mailing Kelly Peasley at kpeasley@acep.org . A sample e-mail supporting the formation of a section is provided below. The section originator will work ACEP's Sections Manager to create the online petition. Supporters will be informed by the originator of the 4 items listed under point #3 above as well as the section dues structure and that by signing the petition they are indicating their intent to become dues-paying members of the proposed section in addition to their regular membership ACEP dues. Dues are $40 for regular members. Emergency medicine resident members, medical students, and individuals in a fellowship training program receive a complimentary section membership in the Young Physicians Section, may join another section of their choice for free and join additional sections for only $20 each.
5. After the Sections Manager receives 100 names or more, the names of interested members, the proposed section objectives, and proposed first-year activities will be submitted to the Board for approval.
6. If the Board approves these materials by a 2/3 vote, the section is chartered. The Board will use the following criteria when reviewing a section charter:
  - a. The objectives of the section will assist and be consistent with furthering and supporting the stated mission, values, objectives, or policies of the College.
  - b. The objectives of the section will be related to the clinical or administrative practice of emergency medicine.
  - c. Qualifications for section membership will not be based on sex, age, race, or religion.
  - d. Membership in a section cannot be limited by geography or employment by a single entity.
  - e. Sections may not duplicate chapters or membership categories that currently exist.
7. Upon approval by the Board of Directors, each member who has e-mailed his/her interest in joining the section will receive an invoice for section dues.

8. The section becomes operational when 100 members have remitted section dues.
9. If the section fails to enlist 100 dues-paying members within one year following the Board of Directors' approval, the charter for that section will be revoked.
10. The president of the College will assign a member of the Board of Directors to serve as a liaison to the section and the executive director will appoint a staff liaison.
11. The section originator will act as the section chair until the next annual Scientific Assembly.
12. The originator/chair will appoint interim leadership for the section, including a newsletter editor who will serve until the section can meet and hold elections.

Forming an ACEP Section

AMERICAN COLLEGE OF EMERGENCY PHYSICIANS

Policy on Sections of Membership

Function

The American College of Emergency Physicians has established a mechanism for members of the College who have a special interest in forming a section of membership. The following are functions of a section of membership:

1. A forum for the exchange of information between members and the College.
2. A means for the College to utilize the expertise of an identifiable group of members on specific issues.
3. A forum for members with a special interest to speak as a unified group to the leadership of the College.
5. A route to policy development.
5. To coordinate activities with other organizations involved in emergency medicine at the invitation of the President and/or Board of Directors.
6. To advance and publicize legislative issues related to emergency medicine.
7. To provide a pathway for professional leadership development within the organization.

Authority

Parliamentary Authority: National ACEP Bylaws, Council Standing Rules, and the Section Manual.

Bylaws: ARTICLE VII — SECTIONS

The College may have one or more groups of members known as sections to provide for members who have special areas of interest within the field of emergency medicine.

Upon the petition of 100 or more members of the College, the Board of Directors may charter such a section of membership of the College. Minimum dues and procedures to be followed by a section of membership shall be determined by the Board of Directors.

Council Standing Rules Councillor Allocation for Sections of Membership

To be eligible to seat a credentialed councillor, a section must have 100 dues-paying members, or the minimum number established by the Board of Directors, on December 31 preceding the annual meeting. Section councillors must be certified by the section by notifying the Council secretary at least 60 days before the annual meeting.

Task and Objectives Defined in the Section Manual

The designated authority/authorities appointed by the president will be tasked to meet specific objectives. They are:

1. To monitor and enforce compliance with the Policy on Sections of Membership.

2. Manage and review the section grant application's program; make final recommendations to the Board of Directors, and monitor the progress of awarded grants.
3. May provide leadership development and training through an educational leadership session during ACEP's Scientific Assembly or some other appropriate event.
4. May provide a section leader training session during the Leadership & Advocacy Conference to enhance section membership.
5. To facilitate the development of new sections and perform a final review with a recommendation to the Board regarding new section petitions.
6. To monitor section membership numbers and notify the designated authority or the Board of Directors when a section is no longer in numeric compliance.
7. To monitor the submission of each section chair's Annual Report.
8. To provide a mechanism for sections to make their recommendations of courses to the appropriate authority responsible for ACEP's Scientific Assembly and other educational activities of the College.
9. To provide appropriate mentoring and leadership development of section members.
10. To monitor and facilitate the timely publication of section newsletters with at least one newsletter each six months.
11. To monitor and facilitate the appropriate use and conformity with College policy in the use of communication vehicles not limited to the e-list, the newsletter, and the ACEP Website.
12. To plan and manage the section awards program including, but not limited to the awards of "Outstanding Section Newsletter", "Outstanding Section Web Page", "Service to College", "Service to Section," and awards for the most growth (numerically and by percent) of a section.
13. Facilitate support for each section's Annual Meeting including the publication of the meetings minutes and the election of officers per the operational guidelines.
14. Facilitate support for the development and submission to the Board of Directors of policies and PREPS for consideration.
15. Provide a mechanism for a section to provide a request to the designated authority appointed by the President to consider an external relationship or liaison appointment.

The parliamentary authority for all proceedings of the section shall be the parliamentary authority approved for use for proceedings of the College. However, should conflicts or inconsistencies arise between the parliamentary authority and this instrument, this instrument shall govern.

Description

Sections are a subcategory of national ACEP membership. As such, sections are part of national ACEP and do not have separate bylaws or formal incorporation documents. Sections shall establish operational guidelines that delineate the procedures that will be utilized in operating the section. The ACEP president, or his/her designee, on behalf of the Board of Directors, must approve these guidelines, but may choose to refer this decision to the entire Board of Directors at their next meeting. The Board of Directors will ratify the President's approval at their next Board meeting

Establishing a Section of Membership

Upon formal petition of 100 or more members of the College, the designated authority appointed by the President will help facilitate development of the section and submit a recommendation to the Board of Directors regarding the petition. The Board of Directors may then charter a section of membership.

The recommendation will include: 1) the petition; 2) prospective section objectives; 3) description of the subject area that will be addressed by the section; 4) description of how the establishment of a section will further the College's ability to meet its objectives; and 5) proposed first-year activities. The petition shall contain the names of the 100 members, who have agreed by their signature on the petition, to establish a section of membership with the understanding that they will be assessed a basic dues amount. A petition shall be accompanied by a document outlining the proposed objectives of the section, a description of the subject area which will be addressed by the section, a statement of how the establishment of the section will further the College's ability to meet its objectives, and a statement of proposed first-year activities of the section. The Board of Directors, at their discretion, may make an exception to change the number required for a section from 100 to any number it deems appropriate. The petition must designate who originated the petition.

The Board of Directors will approve a charter for a section, by 2/3 vote. The designated authority appointed by the President will use the following criteria when reviewing a section charter:

1. The objectives of the section will assist and be consistent with furthering and supporting the stated mission, values, objectives, or policies of the College.
2. The objectives of the section will be related to the clinical or administrative practice of emergency medicine.
3. Qualifications for section membership will not be based on sex, age, race, or religion.
4. Membership in a section cannot be limited by geography or employment by a single entity.
5. Sections may not duplicate chapters or membership categories that currently exist.

Upon approval of the Board of Directors, petitioning members will be notified of the decision. Along with this notification, each member will be sent an invoice for the dues amount. Upon receipt of the dues payment, the member will be considered a member of the section. Services for the section will begin when 100 members or the minimum number of petitioners set by the Board have paid their section dues.

When an approved section fails to attain the required 100 dues-paying members during the period of one year following the Board of Directors approval date, the charter for that section will be revoked. Section dues paid by those members will be credited toward their membership renewal. In order for the section to be reconsidered for a charter, a new petition containing the names of 100 members who have agreed by their e-mail message to the sections manager to establish a section of membership with the understanding that they will be assessed a basic dues amount, will need to be considered by the Board of Directors.

In the event two or more existing sections agree to merge, the officers of each section must survey their members to determine their interest in such a merger. If a majority of respondents in each section are in favor of a merger, the officers of the individual sections should develop objectives for the new section. The section leaders must then submit a recommendation to the Board of Directors for a merger of the sections.

The Board sets minimum dues for activities supported by the College.

The following mechanisms for increasing project funds are available to sections: 1) an allocation of 15% of total dues collected per section during the previous year; 2) a one-time per project voluntary special assessment; 3) expanded criteria for evaluating Section Grant proposals; and 4) fund-raising from outside sources.

Procedures

Each section of membership will be subject to the following procedures:

1. The individual who originated the petition will be the section chair until the next annual Scientific Assembly. Thereafter, each section will elect a section chair utilizing a section nominating committee.
2. A section chair will be elected for one year or for the term specified in the section's operational guidelines. The cycle will coincide with the dates of the annual Scientific Assembly. However, the first section chair will serve from the time the section reaches the official membership total required by the Board of Directors until the second annual meeting of the section. Section chairs may be re-elected for a second consecutive term.
3. The section chair may be appointed by the College president to serve as a voting member of a College committee. The section chair and section members may apply through the usual College process for membership on any College committee. Section membership and section activities will be the criteria by which such appointments will be made.
4. Section chairs are invited to attend Board of Directors meetings at their own expense. Section chairs will receive all minutes of Board, Council, and Steering Committee meetings, etc.
5. Sections will have input into ACEP policy, meetings, and products through College planning processes and normal committee participation.
6. Sections may develop policy statements or information papers for consideration by the College utilizing the process established by the Board of Directors.
7. Requests for additional services beyond the basic member benefits package must be directed to the executive director.
8. The section will appoint a member to be responsible for the development of the section newsletter.
9. The section chair is responsible for keeping the College informed of section activities via copies of agendas and minutes, which will be posted on the College's Web site.
10. All efforts on the part of a section to raise funds outside of dues mechanisms must be approved in advance by the College and meet the criteria established by the College.
11. Rules governing use of the ACEP name and logo, approved by the Board of Directors, will apply to all uses of the section name and the ACEP name and logo. Use of the section name on any publication, correspondence, or for any other purpose, must always clearly indicate that the section is a subcategory of national ACEP membership. In addition, use of section initials should always be preceded by ACEP.

Benefits of Section Membership

The College will make available to all sections certain basic services. These services will include the following:

1. Publication of an electronic newsletter up to four times per year.
2. Notice of meetings in promotional literature, provided the request is made by the chair at least 90 days in advance of the publication date.

3. Meeting space will be made available during the annual Scientific Assembly and other national meetings upon request of the section chair, provided the request is made by the chair at least 6 months in advance of the meeting.
4. A national ACEP staff member will provide staff support for each section.

Maintenance of a Section

Each section must at all times function in accordance with the goals and objectives of the College and assure that the best interest of the College is always maintained. The following will be required of each section based on their operational guidelines and reviewed by the designated authority appointed by the President on an annual basis. Sections found in non-compliance with these requirements may be placed on probation in accordance with the procedures in the charter suspension-revocation section of this policy:

1. Sections must have an annual meeting at which time officers of the section will be elected.
2. Sections must produce at least one newsletter every six months.
3. The section chair will submit an annual report to the College president and executive director. This shall consist of a list of achievements and activities of the past year and goals and objectives for the coming year.
4. Minutes of all meetings of the section will be posted on the College's Web site.
5. The Board must approve all major section plans, goals, objectives, budgets, and meetings before they can be implemented by the newly chartered section.
6. Any printed material will be reviewed by the College prior to its release.
7. The president of the College will assign a Board member to each section to serve as a liaison between that section and the Board.
8. The president is the formal College spokesperson and is responsible for communicating College positions. The section chair must realize that section publications and activities will be perceived by others as representing the opinions of the College. While the president may delegate functions to the section chair, the section chair is not empowered to commit College resources or support positions of other organizations.

Policies and positions of other organizations that the section wishes to support should be forwarded for consideration by the Board of Directors, which has final authority for policy decisions.

Each section must maintain a critical mass of at least 100 members to remain in good standing. If the Board has approved a special section with less than 100 members, it must maintain that approved number to remain in good standing. If the membership level of a section falls below 100 members or the Board-approved number for the section, the following will occur:

1. The designated authority appointed by the President would notify the section chair, in writing, that the membership requirement is not being met.
2. At that time, the section will enter a probationary status. During this time, the section will be entitled to the usual basic services, including a quarterly newsletter, promotional literature, and meeting space during the annual Scientific Assembly.
3. If the section membership again exceeds the required number of members within one year from probationary status, the probationary period will expire, and the designated authority appointed by the President will notify the section chair that the section has returned to good standing.

4. If, within one year, the section fails to increase its membership to 100 members (or the number approved by the Board, the section may petition the designated authority appointed by the President for special review of their activities. The petition shall, include a delineation of the benefits provided by the section, and an action plan to increase section membership to the required minimum. The designated authority appointed by the President will review the plan and provide recommendations to the Board of Directors. The designated authority appointed by the President may recommend to the Board that the section be given an additional year to come into compliance or that the section's charter should be revoked. Sections remaining out of compliance may petition for review on an annual basis.

Charter Suspension-Revocation

The designated authority appointed by the President will review each section on an annual basis and based on this review may recommend charter suspension or revocation to the Board of Directors in accordance with the procedures in this policy.

The charter of any section may be suspended or revoked by the Board of Directors when any of the following occur:

1. The actions of the section are deemed to be in conflict with the Bylaws or the Policy on Sections of Membership.
2. The section fails to comply with all the requirements of the Bylaws, the Policy on Sections of Membership, or with any lawful requirement of the College.
3. The actions of the section are determined not to be in accordance with the goals, objectives, or in the best interest of the College.

Amended: May 1990; January 1992; June 1992; October 1993; June 1996; July 2001; June 2002; April 2008, June 2017

Denver City Park

$25 -- Limited to 40 participants

This offsite event featured scenario-based, hands-on, medical experience utilizing the specialized skills of wilderness and disaster emergency personnel in a supportive, non-stressful learning environment. Event Flyer

We had over 70 local volunteers and 18 ACEP members serve as instructors.

Here was the scenario:

The activity centers around emergency medicine skills required in the disaster and wilderness settings. The scenario for this activity involves a mid-air plane collision of two airplanes carrying skydivers planning to land in an area adjacent to City Park. Individuals were gathered on the walking path in front of the City Park Pavilion to begin a fundraising Spooktacular 5K walk/run. Many were injured by airplane debris propelled to the ground during the crash and some were injured in the crash itself. In addition, some people are unaccounted for requiring search and rescue with K9 capabilities to locate the missing. As with most large disasters, concerned family, news personnel, and investigating authorities also begin to arrive at the scene. The attendees will not have knowledge of the scenario until the day of the event. Each of the participants will rotate through each of the 5 stations.

2018-2019 Activities and Accomplishments

The section had 5 committees who pursued specific objectives during the 2018-19 section year:

Residency Committee

(Chaired by EMRA Wilderness Division Chair)

Chair (2018-19): Lauren Altschuh, MD

Objectives:

Provide seamless access to wilderness medicine research opportunities, educational materials, mentorship, and wilderness elective experiences. Enhance resident and medical student collaboration with the WMS.

Report: EMRA held its fourth MedWar on Wednesday, October 30 at Castlewood Canyon State Park, south of Denver. Special thanks went to Drs. Caudell and Haston who were instrumental in planning the race and to all the section members who served as proctors and volunteers.

Fellowship Directors Committee

Chair: Susanne Spano, MD, FACEP

Objective: Represent and serve as a resource to the directors of the fellowship programs in wilderness medicine.

Report: 15 attended the Fellowship Directors Committee meeting in person and 7 by phone. 15 wilderness medicine fellowship programs were represented. Discussion items included the November 1 fellowship offer date as well as tapping the expertise within the group to develop their own matching software and to host the test bank. They also discussed the options available for external peer review of fellowship programs. SAEM has received 5 submissions, with 2 more under review. The Wilderness Medical Society should go live with their review program in about 6 months. The WMS will review all programs and specialties that create WM fellowships.

Liaison Committee

Chair: Lillian J Lockwood, MD, FACEP

Objective: Work with other sections and committees with similar goals, where there is crossover, such as International, Disaster, EMS, etc.

Report: Dr. Lockwood planned and executed ACEP X-TREME, a pre-conference activity held at Denver City Park on Saturday, 10/26. The event provided disaster and wilderness training for 25 attendees with varying levels of medical training. Dr. Lockwood and her team managed over 80 local volunteers, various props and two K-9 dogs. She thanked and congratulated the 20 instructors who are members of the Wilderness and/or Disaster sections for their time, expertise and excellent teaching skills.

Activities Committee

Chair: Dave Young, MD

Objective: Plan a pre-conference activity or secure a speaker for the annual section meeting during ACEP's annual meeting.

Report: No social activity was planned or held in 2019. The committee combined efforts with the Liaison Committee to plan and execute ACEP X-TREME.

Exhibit-Simulated Outdoor Setting Committee

Chair: Taylor Haston, DO, FACEP

Objective: Continue and expand the idea brought forward by Board liaison Dr. Kang, of bringing wilderness into the exhibit hall at ACEP's annual meeting and raise the visibility of wilderness medicine.

Report: Dr. Haston provided background on the project and talked about the experience in 2017. In addition to promoting education about wilderness medicine and generating interest with non-section members, the project increased member involvement opportunities. She mentioned that it was a heavy lift for the few section members and staff who lead the initiative and that if we were to try to repeat the experience that we should consider collaborating and sharing the space with other sections (Pediatric, Telehealth and Wellness, etc.). The committee will evaluate options, including a smaller scale event and/or cross-section collaboration.

Other Activities / Accomplishments

Photo Contest

The annual Wilderness Medicine Photo Contest was successful again this year with 59 photos submitted. A slide show of the photos was posted on the Wilderness Medicine Section Website, as well as promoted on engaged and in the October 2019 newsletter, for members to view. It was also presented at the section meeting in Denver. The judges were evenly split on their top two selections and decided that there should be two winners this year. ## Section Grant – Race Medicine Video Series

Dr. Linda Sanders was awarded a section grant on behalf of the Wilderness Medicine section in June 2017 for a series of 7 video podcasts on race medicine. They were promoted to the section members on engagED and in the newsletter and to the ACEP membership in EM Today and on social media.

Race Medicine: A video podcast for endurance events

Emergency Medicine practitioners are the most common medical directors and staff for both recreational and professional racing competitions. In spite of this, there is little formal training specific to the illnesses and injuries that athletes sustain during these events. The purpose of this race medicine video series is to fill an educational gap for those providing care at endurance events so as to improve the care provided to these athletes. This is a 7-video series. Each video covers a topic related to race medicine from an overview to preparation and an approach to specific illnesses and injuries.

Please note that only CDEM subscribers can earn CME credit for reading it– although the information itself is very valuable.
