

Final Objectives 2022-23

International Emergency Medicine Committee

Chair: Janis P. Tupesis, MD, FACEP

Board Liaison: Gillian R. Schmitz, MD, FACEP

Staff Liaison: Mollie Pillman, MS, MBA, CAE

1. Position ACEP as a world leader in developing emergency medicine worldwide by reviewing results of recent research and packaging relevant ACEP or partner content for three international audiences:
 - a. Local and Regional Leadership / Health Ministries (policy/advocacy training, event and disaster planning, mass casualty preparation)
 - b. Hospital / University Leaders (clinical policies, how to set up and run an ED, research, and teaching fellowship programs)
 - c. EM Physicians (clinical protocols and tools, how to start a local society, diversity and women in emergency medicine)
2. Expand revenue opportunities to support both domestic and international programming
 - a. Recruit international attendees to live and virtual ACEP meetings and events.
 - b. Explore innovative partnerships with EM organizations and other strategic development opportunities (train-the-trainer and certificate programs, joint events, etc.).
 - c. Create robust membership recruitment programs where appropriate.
3. Work with the International Emergency Medicine Section to expand recruitment and engagement of ACEP International Ambassadors
 - a. Assist with oversight of the Ambassador Program and Ambassador Conference to better understand emergency care, models, and activities in each country.
 - b. Identify International Federation of Emergency Medicine (IFEM)) member countries where ACEP does not have an Ambassador and send invitations to apply.
 - c. Provide ongoing networking and development opportunities for Ambassadors.
