

John J. Kelly DO, FACEP, FAAEM, FCPP

Interim Chairman and Director of Emergency Department Quality Improvement and Patient Safety at Einstein Medical Center. He is Professor of Emergency Medicine, Jefferson Medical College, Thomas Jefferson University and holds Adjunct Faculty appointments at Department of Emergency Medicine, Drexel University School of Medicine and Department of Emergency Medicine, Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine; manuscript reviewer, Journal of Emergency Medicine; manuscript reviewer, Annals of Emergency Medicine; CORD Question and Answer Bank, past editor, Society for Academic Emergency Medicine; Pennsylvania American College of Emergency Physicians, Education Committee abstract reviewer: "W.H. Spivey Research Presentation".

He is Past President of the Einstein Medical Center of Philadelphia (EMCP) Medical Staff Board, and Past Chair of the Medical Staff Board Credentials Committee, EMCP Pneumonia Task Force, and Severe Sepsis Task Force. He is a member of the Hospital Board Quality Subcommittee, Medical Leadership Executive Committee, Performance Improvement Council, Cath Alert QA Group, Stroke Task Force. He is a Past-President and of the Pennsylvania Chapter of the American College of Emergency Physicians (ACEP), and is a member of the Education Committee. Nationally, he is a member of the ACEP Quality and Performance Committee, Past Chair of the ACEP Academic Affairs Committee, and Past Chair of the ACEP Quality Improvement and Patient Safety Section. Dr. Kelly has published on Quality of Emergency Care, Patient Safety, and Emergency Airway Safety/Assessment. He holds the Einstein Physician Partnership Award, the Albert Einstein Society Physician Leadership Award, and the Einstein Leadership Excellence Award.

Education

Residency: Emergency Medicine, LSU Charity Hospital

Medical School: Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine

Academic and Clinical interests: Improving STEMI, Pneumonia, Stroke, and Severe Sepsis care and system process; Hospital and Emergency Department Quality Improvement; CMS National Core Measures in development; Joint Commission and Regulatory Agency standards compliance; Medical Staff Leadership; State and National ACEP leadership.