

AMERICAN COLLEGE OF EMERGENCY PHYSICIANS

SECTION OF EMERGENCY TELEHEALTH OPERATIONAL GUIDELINES

The Section of Emergency Telehealth is chartered by the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of the American College of Emergency Physicians (College) to provide a forum in which members of the College with special interests in Emergency Telehealth medicine can develop a knowledge base, share information, receive and give counsel, and serve as a resource to others interested in this area of emergency medicine.

Because sections are considered a subcategory of College membership, sections will not have separate bylaws or formal incorporation documents, and their existence and operations shall be subject to the terms and conditions stated in the Policy on Sections of Membership, as adopted and/or amended by the Board.

These operational guidelines have been established to facilitate the operation of the section. They shall conform to the Bylaws of the College, and the activities of the section must align with the decisions of the Board. Projects related to education, internal governance, legislation, or public relations shall be undertaken only with the advice and consent of the Board. The activities of the section shall be closely coordinated with those of the College.

1 Name

The name of this section shall be the Section of Emergency Telehealth.

2 Purpose

The purpose of the section is to provide a forum for discussion of issues relating to the use of emergency and acute unscheduled connected health, including but not limited to digital and telehealth; encourage educational and training efforts; stimulate research; disseminate information regarding emergency telehealth including best practices, guidelines, and policies; engage in issues in regulation and health policy; and, promote digital and telehealth in a manner that can help patients and society.

3 Objectives

In addition to the general objectives of the College as set forth in the Bylaws, the objectives of this section shall be:

- 3.1 To promote the development of the specialty of emergency medicine across the world and specifically emergency telehealth.
- 3.2 To promote collegiality and cooperation among the physicians who practice emergency medicine. and who practice, benefit from, or are interested in emergency telehealth.
- 3.3 To provide an opportunity for physicians interested in emergency medicine to meet, interact, and network.
- 3.4 To develop and present educational programs on the many facets of emergency medicine.
- 3.5 To prepare and distribute an interesting, educational, and informative newsletter for members of the section.

- 3.6 To serve as a resource to the President, Board of Directors, College committees, and ACEP members on issues relating to emergency medicine.
- 3.7 To coordinate activities with other organizations involved in emergency medicine at the invitation of the President and/or Board of Directors.
- 3.8 To advance and publicize legislative issues related to emergency medicine.
- 3.9 To provide a pathway for professional leadership development within the organization.

4 Membership

- 4.1 The membership of the Section of Emergency Telehealth shall consist of physicians who are interested in or have expertise in emergency telehealth, who are interested in contributing toward the objectives of the section, and who fulfill membership requirements as defined in the ACEP Bylaws. Section members may vote on section matters and be officers of the section.

5 Nominating Committee

- 5.1 The make-up of the Nominating Committee will be appointed by the section's executive committee at least six months prior to a section officer election. See Section 9.1, Standing and Special Committees.

8 Councillor

- 8.1 The section shall elect a Councillor and an Alternate Councillor to represent the section on the Council of the College (Council). The term of office is two years, with the Alternate Councillor(s) assuming the role of Councillor at the end of their two-year term. If the Alternate Councillor is unable to serve as Councillor, the section shall elect a member to fill the Councillor position. The terms of the Councillor and Alternate Councillor shall begin at the conclusion of the section's annual meeting during which the election occurs, and shall expire at the conclusion of the second succeeding annual meeting. In the event of a vacancy in the Councillor position, the Alternate Councillor shall serve the remainder of the Councillor's unexpired term. In the event of a vacancy in the Alternate Councillor position, the Executive Committee shall, by a majority vote, elect a member of the section to serve the remainder of the Alternate Councillor's unexpired term.
- 8.2 Duties of the Councillor and Alternate Councillor(s):
- 8.2.1 Shall represent the section at the Council meeting.
- 8.2.2 Shall have duties, obligations, and privileges as designated by the Bylaws and procedures adopted by the Council.
- 8.2.3 Shall keep the section informed of all Council activities before, during, and between sessions and report to the section, through its newsletter and/or other communication vehicles, all important matters considered.
- 8.2.4 Shall bring any resolutions developed by the section to the Council.

At all times, Councillors and/or Alternate Councillors serve in accordance with the Council's Standing Rules.

9 Standing and Special Committees

- 9.1 The Chair shall appoint a Nominating Committee as a standing committee and designate the Immediate Past-Chair to serve as Chair. In addition to the Immediate Past-Chair, the Nominating Committee shall consist of at least three members.
- 9.2 The Chair shall appoint special committees such as the Communications Committee, Education Committee, etc. The Committee leaders and members shall be appointed by the Chair.

10 Meetings

The section's annual meeting will be held during the annual Scientific Assembly of the College and shall consist of two portions:

- 10.1 A professional program open to all members of the College, professionals, paraprofessionals, and guests invited by the section.
- 10.2 A business meeting open to all members of the College with voting limited to section members.
- 10.3 At their own expense, sections may hold special meetings at other ACEP functions.
- 10.4 Sections may seek outside funding support for their meeting as long as it is not in conflict with the College's fundraising activities associated with Scientific Assembly.

11 Dues

The dues for the section are established by the Board of Directors of the College.

12 Additional Funding for Activities

12.1 The mechanisms for increasing project funds available to sections are outlined in the Sections Manual.

13 Parliamentary Authority

The parliamentary authority for all proceedings of the section shall be the parliamentary authority approved for use for proceedings of the College. However, should conflicts or inconsistencies arise between the parliamentary authority and this instrument, this instrument shall govern.

14 Voting

14.1 Voting on any issue, including amendments to these Operational Guidelines, shall be accomplished either during the annual meeting, or via electronic ballot. A majority of section members voting must approve any item for the item to be approved. The Chair shall determine which method is appropriate for each item coming before the section.

14.2 The election of officers shall be by a majority vote of the section members present and voting at the annual meeting. If elections are held electronically, the election of officers shall be by a majority vote of the section members voting electronically.

14.3 For electronic voting, the voting membership will be defined as the section membership on the date the ballot is sent. Electronic voting must allow the confirmation of a voting member's identity. For in-person voting, the voting membership will be defined by the section members present and voting at the annual meeting.

Survey software selected by ACEP will be used to e-mail the ballots and to tally the results.

At least one e-mail notice will be sent to all section members regarding the upcoming ballot.

Seven days after the last notification email, the ballot will be e-mailed once to all section members with a due date in 10 days.

15 Amendments

Any member of the section membership may originate a proposed change in these section operational guidelines. Proposed amendments to the operational guidelines must be submitted in writing to the Chair in care of the section's staff liaison at the College at least ninety (90) days prior to the scheduled annual meeting or date of scheduled vote. Within 5 business days the proposed amendments shall be submitted to ACEP's legal department for review and approval.

Proposed amendments will be communicated to the section at least 30 days prior to the section's annual meeting or date of scheduled vote, and will be placed on the agenda of the section annual meeting or circulated to the members pursuant to the procedures set forth in Section 14. Any proposed amendment must be approved by two-thirds of the members present and voting during the annual meeting or by two-thirds of those members voting using electronic ballot.

The Section Executive Committee and the Board of Directors of the College will review adopted amendments. Amendments approved by the Board of Directors of the College will be published on the section's website preceding the section's next annual meeting.

Approved by the ACEP Board of Directors April 2008. Revised and approved June 2017. Revised and approved January 2026.
